COPY of the PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURY, for October Seſſions, 1764.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS of the Grand Jurors for the body of this province, at a court of general ſeſſions of the peace, oyer and terminer, aſſize and general goal delivery, begun and holden at CHARLES-TOWN, the 17*th day of* October 1764, before the honourable CHARLES SHINNER, Eſq; chief juſtice, and ROBERT PRINGLE, Eſq; aſſiſtant-judge.

1ſt. WE preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of COUNTY COURTS in this province; whereby proſecutors and evidences are brought from the extreme parts to Charles-Town at a great expence, which they are not able to pay.

Second. We preſent Jacob Bomner and Thomas Sykes, for having ſlaughter-pens and killing cattle, in and about Anſonburgh; to the great annoyance of the neighbourhood, by the filth and ſtench of their pens, and to the endangering the lives of paſſengers paſſing and re-paſſing on the public road.

Third. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of a proper officer, whoſe ſole buſineſs ſhall be, to ſee, that the FIRE-WOOD ſold in Charles-Town, be duly meaſured, and to prevent foreſtalling the ſame to the great detriment of the poor.

Fourth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of a law, to regulate the ſcales and weights on the wharves in Charles-Town, and for aſcertaining the charges of landing, weighing and ſtoring goods thereon; which have heretofore been attended with evil conſequences to the trading and planting intereſt of this province, and many more we apprehend may ſtill ariſe.

Fifth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of a new JURY-LIST; as the public duty falls too often on the ſame perſons in Charles-Town, and elſewhere, many perſons in the Jury-Liſt being ſince dead or departed the province, and the inhabitants greatly increaſed, more eſpecially in the ſaid town, at leaſt one-fourth ſince the laſt act was paſſed.

Sixth. We preſent Jacob Summeral, a Juſtice of the Peace for Craven county, as a perſon utterly unfit to act in that character; he being charged, upon the oaths of Benjamin Ryan and Daniel Rogers, with having iſſued a warrant againſt Joſeph Vann, on a ſuſpicion of having ſtolen a horſe from the ſaid Ryan, without taking, or requiring, an oath from the complainant Ryan; and further, that after the ſaid Vann was taken and brought before him, the ſaid Summeral, he brought and preſented to the ſaid Ryan, thirty-nine dollars, as a ſatisfaction for his horſe, if he would proceed no further againſt the ſaid Vann, and that the evidences were compelled, by the ſaid Summeral, to enter into recognizance to appear at court, without ſufficient grounds for the proſecution, to their great hurt and damage, being obliged to travel one hundred and eighty miles for that purpoſe.

Seventh. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, that the cauſey, commonly called Wallace's cauſey, is very much neglected; and many of the perſons liable to work on the ſaid cauſey being remote therefrom, we recommend a law, to appoint thoſe more contiguous thereto, to keep it in order.

Eighth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, boats and ſcooners diſcharging their ballaſt into the rivers and creeks through which they paſs, to the great hurt and damage of the navigation thereof; and when they arrive at the public landings to receive their loads, diſcharge their ballaſt careleſsly on the banks, which falling into the ſaid rivers and creeks, may, in a ſhort time, ſtop up their navigation.

Ninth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, that the freights from the ſeveral public landings are not ſettled by a law; for want of which the inhabitants are greatly impoſed upon by the patroons of ſaid boats.

Tenth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of a PUBLIC GOAL in Charles-Town; the preſent one being inſufficient to contain the number of debtors and criminals frequently put therein, whereby their healths are greatly endangered.

Eleventh. We preſent, (upon the information of Charles Woodmaſon, Eſq;) Mary M'Dowell, in Pinckney's-ſtreet in Charles-Town, for keeping a moſt notorious brothel, and a receptacle for lewd women, to the great annoyance of the inhabitants of ſaid ſtreet.

Twelfth. We preſent, as a GRIEVANCE, the want of a proper Houſe of Correction in Charles-Town; the Work-Houſe now uſed for that purpoſe, being inſufficient, whereby notorious bawds, ſtrumpets, vagrants, drunkards and idle perſons, who might be there committed, reign and infeſt the ſaid town with impunity.

We recommend that the charges of proſecution againſt Soloman Hughes, and the Creek Indian Wbolanawitza, be defrayed by the public: And, that the foregoing PRESENTMENTS be publiſhed in both gazettes.

J. DUTARQUE, jun.	(L.S.)	ALEX. RANTOWLE,	(L.S.)
Is. MAZYCK, jun.	(L.S.)	THOMAS ELLIOTT,	(L.S.)
		ROBERT BOYD,	(L.S.)

Thurſday 1ſt of November, 1764, being the adjournment day of October ſeſſions, the court took the preſentments of the grand jury into conſideration, and made the following orders thereon, viz.

1ſt. ORDERED, that this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Second. Ordered, That proceſs do iſſue againſt Jacob Bomner and Thomas Sykes, to oblige them to enter into recognizance, to forbear the nuſance here preſented, until the next court of general ſeſſions, and then to anſwer ſuch matters as ſhall be alledged againſt them.

Third. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Fourth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Fifth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Sixth. Ordered, That this preſetment be laid before his honour the lieutenant-governor in council, and that proceſs do iſſue againſt Jacob Summeral, to come in and plead, and anſwer, to this preſentment; and that the attorney-general do proceed againſt the ſaid Jacob Summeral, at the next court of general ſeſſions, either by bill, plaint, or information, as he ſhall judge moſt proper.

Seventh. Ordered, That the commiſſioners for Wallace's cauſeway do ſhew cauſe, by or before the firſt day of next ſeſſions, why an information ſhould not be filed againſt them, for keeping the ſaid cauſeway in proper repair; that public notice be given to the ſaid commiſſioners of this preſentment and order in both the gazettes; and that this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Eighth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Ninth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Tenth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature, as earneſtly recommended to their conſideration, by this court.

Eleventh. Ordered, That proceſs do iſſue againſt Mary Macdowell, to oblige her to find ſecurity for her good behaviour, until next court of general ſeſſions, to anſwer any bill, plaint or information, that ſhall then be preferred againſt her. And it is further ordered, that the attorney-general, do then proceed againſt her in ſuch manner as he ſhall judge proper.

Twelfth. Ordered, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

Ordered, That the recommendation of the grand jury be laid before the legiſlature, as earneſtly recommended by the court, in hopes that ſome proviſion may be made for defraying the expences of ſuch perſons as ſhall be hereafter obliged to travel from great diſtances, to attend this court, as witneſſes on behalf of the crown.

Ordered, That the foregoing preſentments, together with the orders made thereupon, be publiſhed in both gazettes.

By the Court,
D. CAMPBELL, C. C. & P.

October ſeſſions, 1764.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given to the commiſſioners for Wallace's cauſeway, that unleſs they ſhall ſhew ſufficient cauſe, by or before the firſt day of next March ſeſſions, why the ſaid cauſeway has not been kept in proper repair, information will be filed againſt them by his Majeſty's attorney-general,

By order of the court,
D. CAMPBELL, C. C. & P.

October ſeſſions, 1764.

RICHARD HART,

Coach and Chair-Maker, in QUEEN-STREET,

CONTINUES to make and repair coaches, chariots and other carriages, in the moſt ſolid and genteel manner, and hopes for the continuance of the favours of all his friends and cuſtomers.—As he has large ſums due to him, many of very long ſtanding, he intreats all perſons indebted to him above twelve months, to make ſpeedy payment, as he is under a neceſſity of making a call on them for the ſpeedy ſettlement of his affairs.

N. B. Said Hart hath a very neat genteel curricle, little the worſe for wear, to diſpoſe of, which will be ſold cheap.

November 6th, 1764.

TWELVE hundred pounds is wanted on intereſt, for which good perſonal ſecurity will be given. Enquire of the printer hereof.

ROBERT DILLON,

HAVING met with ſundry diſappointments in the getting in his debts, and being at this time very much preſſed to diſcharge ſuch as he owes; is reduced to the neceſſity of appriſing his cuſtomers, that he muſt be obliged to take a method very diſagreeable, if ſuch gentlemen, as honour him with their favours, don't very ſhortly render it unneceſſary.

For LONDON, or COWES and a Market,
The Ship AMHERST,
JOHN BROWNE, Maſter,

WILL be ready to take in her cargo in ſix or eight days, in order to proceed with the very firſt of the crop; is a fine veſſel, and has good accommodations for paſſengers. For freight or Paſſage, apply to WILLIAM SAVAGE.

TO BE SOLD, At publick Vendue,

On Thurſday the 29*th day of November, at the ſame time and place of the ſale of Mr. Daniel River's eſtate, on James's iſland.*

JOHN JOHNSTON,

WATCH-MAKER, in Elliott-Street,

Begs leave to acquaint the public,

THAT he makes, mends, and cleans all ſorts of watches, and is regularly bred to the buſineſs, having duly ſerved an apprenticeſhip of SEVEN YEARS, to one of the beſt WATCH-MAKERS in the city of London.—All who are pleaſed to favour him with their cuſtom, may depend that they will be treated with the ſtricteſt juſtice, and with the greateſt care; he will endeavour to give ſatisfaction, by repairing and cleaning the watches in the moſt compleat and neateſt manner, on the loweſt terms, and will warrant them for a twelve-month from the day they are done.

N. B. Some good WATCHES to be ſold cheap.

ALL preſent and former officers and ſtewards of the Grand Lodge, of the moſt ancient and honourable ſociety of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS in South-Carolina, and the PRESENT maſters and wardens of all regular conſtituted lodges, under the provincial juriſdiction, are deſired to aſſemble in quarterly communication, at ſix o' clock in the evening of Monday the 19th of November inſt. in the lodge-room at Mr. Dillon's in Charles-Town.

By the Grand Maſter's Command,
ROBERT WELLS, G. Secr.

RAN away from the ſubſcriber, the 18th of October laſt, a ſenſible negro man, named JOE or CUDJOE, about thirty-three years of age, ſlim and tall, much pitted with the ſmall pox, and one of his legs ſmaller than the other; had on, when he went away, a green jacket, an old check ſhirt, and oſnaburg trowſers. He is very well known in Charles-Town, where it is ſuppoſed he may be harboured; and, it is not unlikely, he may attempt to get off the province. All maſters of veſſels and others, are therefore hereby cautioned, not to carry off, harbour, entertain or employ the ſaid run-away; as all who do, will be proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour. Any perſon that delivers him to me, or to the warden of the work-houſe, ſhall have Five pounds reward. And whoever will give information of his being harboured, ſhall, on conviction of the offender, if a free white perſon, receive Five and twenty pounds, or if a ſervant or ſlave Ten pounds, from GEORGE NODDINGS, Shipwright.

NOTICE is hereby given that all the males, in the pariſh of St. James's Santee, Craven-County, from the age of ſixteen to ſixty years, are aſſeſſed, at the rate of Ten ſhillings per head, for the rebuilding of Wambaw bridge. They are deſired to pay the ſame by the 24th of November inſt. Executions will immediately after that day be granted againſt all defaulters.

JOHN MAYRANT,
ISAAC LEGRAND,
JOHN BARNETT,
PETER GUERRY,
PETER SIMMONS,

October 29th, 1764.

Charles Town, November 8th, 1764.

AS there is a neceſſity of ſettling the affairs of WILLIAM GLAZE, deceaſed; thoſe who have any demands againſt the ſaid eſtate, are deſired to make them known immediately to John Edwards and company, in Charles-Town, or to John Bulline, on Aſhley-River, and thoſe who are any ways indebted to the eſtate, are deſired to pay the ſame to John Bulline, aforeſaid. ESTHER GLAZE, Adminiſtratrix.

For the NEWS, other new ADVERTISEMENTS, &c. &c. &c. ſee the SUPPLEMENT.

☞ All who favour the Printer of this Gazette with ADVERTISEMENTS, are deſired to ſignify at Foot how long they would have them continued; otherwiſe they will be inſerted, as uſual, in only three ſucceſſive Papers.

JAMES SIMPSON, C. C.

PHILIP TIDYMAN,

Jeweller and goldsmith, in Broad-Street, takes the liberty of informing the public, that he hath just imported, in the Friendship, capt. Ball, and Heart of Oak, capt. Gunn.

AS large and compleat an assortment of jewellery as perhaps was ever imported in this province at one time, consisting of great variety of rings and earings, set with brilliant and rose diamonds, emeralds, rubies, amethists, topases, opes, aquamarine, garnets, paste, foyle, stone, &c. necklaces of gold, garnets, both set and strung, real and mock in abundance, finest aquamarine and paste ditto, the most elegant caps and aigrettes of garnets set, aquamarine ditto, and all sorts of prices, every pattern of stone buckles that are extant, finish'd by the most accomplish'd workmen, from £. 17. 10 s. to £. 120 per set, mother of pearl, silver, and new fashion'd beads of all sorts and colours, artificial pearls from China, seals of all sorts, with the finest stones engraved, by the most eminent hands, garnets and paste cluster buttons in gold, with various other kinds of stones in gold and silver, silver nutmeg graters, plain and chas'd, acorn, barrel and urn ditto, small bottles of all sorts, and in all fancies, cases with ribbons for measures, paper ditto with gold rims, variety of cases with the finest cast steel lancets, etwee cases in all shapes, and tooth pick cases, ladies and gentlemens fine gold watch chains, pinchbeck, double gilded London made ditto, and ditto finely wrought in steel and silver, pocket books of tortoise shell, ivory and vellum, ditto of an extraordinary kind, which may be clear'd from ink, red Morocco ditto, of all sizes and prizes, gold and silver pencil cases with steel heads, silk needle cases, cork screws, French bead earrings, quadrille boxes, enamel'd pooles and mother of pearl fishes and counters, India bottle stands, a large quantity of the genteelest and most fashionable breast buckles that are worn, gold wiers and nobb'd earrings, tortoise shell and enamel'd snuff boxes, cane heads, and basket head canes, plain gold and chas'd lockets, crystal ditto, plain and with gold knots, and French motto, French fancy motto rings, a large quantity of loose stones for manufacturing such articles as are bespoke, with many other valuable trinkets, &c. too tedious to be inserted, besides a few articles of plate of the most fashionable kind, viz. fine pierced and polish'd bread baskets, orange strainers, punch ladles, chas'd urns and ewers, finest polish'd French table spoons, a large quantity of silver buckles, fine cut crystal ewers, with silver tops and wood stands, silver spring spurs and loop'd ditto, with great choice of salts, chas'd, nurl'd and gadroon'd, with a quantity of fine Turky oil stones, &c.

As he employs a great many hands, all in different branches of his business, he is enabled to sell his goods as cheap as in most retale shops in England, making no other difference but freight, insurance, &c. There will be great allowance to masters of vessels, or others, who take a quantity.

N. B. He hath imported likewise in the last vessels, a choice cargo of saddlers ware, and a chest of shoes of all sorts, fine womens silk and sattin lasting and colour'd, with mens fine bound shoes and pumps, all from the manufacturers, which will be sold together for cash, at eight for one, or by retale considerably under the common advance.

CHARLES-STEVENS STOCKER,

Hath just imported, in the Friendship, Capt. Samuel Ball, from LONDON:

A LARGE and compleat assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, which he will sell on very reasonable terms, at his store in Tradd-street, next above Messrs. Maxyck & Moultrie's store. t.b.c.t.f.

JOHN PARNHAM,

Has just imported, in the ship Portland, Capt. Higgins, from LONDON,

SUPERFINE broad cloths, drab ditto, whalebone, and slay trimmings, with other articles well assorted for the place, and adapted to the season; which he will sell considerably under the common advance, as he intends to import no more goods until his present stock on hand is disposed of.—His friends, who are indebted to him, are desired to settle their accompts speedily.

ALEXANDER RANTOWLE informs me of a grey horse, about twelve hands high, branded on the mounting shoulder like an heart with a hook thro' it, having stray'd into his field, the owner may prove his property before JOHN REMINGTON, J. P.

Charles-Town, October 26th, 1764.

A Young man, from England, who can have an undeniable character, will be glad of employ in a compting house, or store; will have no objection to go supercargo to any colony; understands book-keeping and merchants accompts and writes a tolerable hand: For further particulars enquire of the printer.

For LONDON,
The Snow PORTLAND,
GEORGE HIGGINS, Master,
(To sail with the first of the Crop)

HAS good accommodations for passengers. For freight of indico and skins, or passage, apply to the said master, or WILLIAM BAMFIELD.

TO BE SOLD, on Thursday the 15th of November, at the plantation of the late ARNOLD HARVEY, in St. Paul's parish: All the estate of the said deceased.

CONSISTING of near forty valuable slaves, mostly this country born; also, a large number of tame black cattle, and some valuable horses and mares, with the hogs, sheep, plantation tools, and crop of rice, corn, pease, &c. as they at present are: Credit will be given to the first of January 1765, for all sums above fifty pounds, and all under to be paid down. The property not to be alter'd untill the conditions of the sale are complied with.

SOPHIA HARVEY, Executrix.

RAN away, from the subscriber, about a month ago, a negro wench, named MARY, of a short stature, pitted with the small pox; had on, when she went away, a green petticoat, and oznaburgs shift: Whoever will deliver said negro to the warden of the work house, shall receive Three Pounds reward, from IMANUEL CORTISOZ.

The following strayed horses were lately taken up, on the plantation of the subscriber, near the Quarter horse.

A Dark bay horse, about thirteen hands high, a small star in his forehead, branded cM on his mounting shoulder, and N on his off buttock, and other brands which cannot be distinguished.

A black horse about fifteen hands high, no brands that are distinguishable, but mark'd with many white saddle spots.

A bright bay horse, bald face, and no brands, about thirteen hands high. The owners are desired to prove their property before Oct. 24. 1764. D. DOYLEY.

STRAY'D or stolen, off Mr. Lynch's green, about the 10th instant (October) a white horse, about thirteen hands high; branded D on the mounting buttock. Whoever delivers the said horse, or gives such information of him that he may be got, to William Chisholm, in Queen-street, near Mr. Pendergrass's, shall be handsomely rewarded.

SUPER FINE flour, some of it superior to what is usually imported here, being such as is shipp'd for the Jamaica market, just landed from on board the sloop Sally, capt. Schermerhorn, from New-York, West India rum, and bright muscovado sugar in barrels, to be sold by GEORGE SMITH.

White and best oats, from the best English seed, to be sold at his plantation, on Cooper River or house in Charlestown.

STRAY'D some time ago, a white trotting horse, about 12 years old, and 13 hands and an half high, branded on the mounting shoulder ⊖—⊖. Whoever delivers him to the Printer hereof, shall have THREE POUNDS reward.——N.B. The said stray has been frequently seen at the FOUR-HOLES, about Mr. William Stead's.

TO BE SOLD, by GEORGE LIVINGSTON,

THE plantation, or tract of land known by the name of the Distillery, about four miles from Charles-Town, by water; pleasantly situated, on a bold creek, containing, by a survey made by the late Mr. William Wilkins, seven hundred and ninety-five acres: There are on said land three tapey buildings, one of which is near ninety feet long, and forty odd wide, the other two about thirty by twenty wide; a pretty good dwelling house, large barn and other out-houses, two sets of new indico vats, a lime vat and pump, two dams of water, one of which containing about ten acres, is near to, and almost joins, the largest of the tapey buildings. This plantation was bought of Doctor Samuel Carne, with a large copper still, two iron ones, and other implements for distilling, and stands in the same manner as when bought: not more than one hundred and thirty acres of the land is cleared, about sixty of which is under a new fence.

JOHN SCHERMERHORN,

HAS just imported in the sloop Sally, from New-York, choice RUM, FLOUR, MACKRELL, ONIONS, &c. which he will dispose of very reasonably, for cash, at one of the stores on Col. Beale's wharf.

To be hired reasonably by the year,

AN able negro Fellow, who is a good boatman, and perfectly well acquainted with the rivers between Charles-Town and Savannah in Georgia. Inquire of ROBERT WILLIAMS, jun.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has opened a NEW TAVERN, at BEAUFORT, Port-Royal; where gentlemen of the town or country, or travelling that way, may depend on the best treatment, as well as entertainment, and good stabling &c. for their horses, from Their most obedient humble Servant, WILLIAM McLAUGHLIN.

PRICE & HEST,

Have just imported in the ship Heart of Oak, Capt. Gunn, from LONDON,

A Compleat assortment of ship chandlery GOODS, all kinds slops for seamen, a few pieces of Irish linens, bohea tea, pigtail and cut and dry tobacco, which they will sell reasonable, at their ship chandlery WAREHOUSE, near the Vendue-House.

WILLIAM ROBINSON,

RETURNS his most hearty thanks to all his friends and customers, who have heretofore employ'd him, and hopes the same will continue, as he will, with great diligence, endeavour to oblige those, either in town or country, that shall be pleased to employ him in any of the several branches of coach, chaise, and coach-harness making, and repairing, which will be done after the newest taste, and with quick dispatch; and he has also some neat new chairs to dispose of, at a most reasonable rate, where he now lives at Mr. Perkins's old shop, in New Church-street, opposite the White meeting. c. 67

DESERTED in the night of the 28th instant, from the ship Tracy, Robert Pring, master, two seamen, viz.

JOHN EUSTICE, about 20 years of age, of a short stature, fair complexion, with light brown hair.

JAMES STEBBENS, aged about 24 years, of a middle stature, and very thick, a brown complexion, and marked with the small-pox, which he lately had; had on a cap or wig.

Whoever gives such information of the said deserters, that they may be delt with according to law, shall have a GUINEA reward for each, from said master, or

Oct. 29th, 1764. DAVID STODDARD.

HILL & FARLEY,

HAVE just imported in the Charles-Town Packet, Capt. Thomas Mason, best Philadelphia BEER, super-fine and common FLOUR, which they will sell at their store on Beresford's wharf, very reasonable, for cash or short credit, as they intend shortly to leave this province.

RICHARD WALTER, and Comp.

INFORM their friends, that they have now opened a store at Dorchester, in the house lately possessed by Messrs. Thomson and Hunter, where they have a very neat assortment of goods, just arrived in the Portland, Capt. Higgins, from London: which, with wine, rum, sugar, &c. they will sell on the lowest terms.

N. B. Those of their friends who open accounts between this and the first of January, will be entitled to credit to the end of next year.

ORDERED, that the Stono troop of horse do meet, on Tuesday the 20th of November, at Mr. Alexander Rantowle's, at Stono, by 10 o'clock in the forenoon, well mounted, cloathed and accoutred, according to law. ELIJAH PRIOLEAU, Clerk.

A Small trotting black gelding, four years old, with one wall eye, branded on three quarters H. supposed to be stolen from North-Carolina, by one Whitehead, may be had of the subscriber, the owner proving his property, and applying according to law, to PATRICK CALHOUN, J.P.

Long-Canes, Oct. 17th, 1764.

TO BE SOLD, at public sale, at the plantation of Mr. ROBERT RIVERS, (son of Jeremiah Rivers) deceased, on James-Island, on wednesday the 14th day of November next:

ALL the personal estate of the said deceased, consisting of two slaves, one of which is a good butcher, a handy market-man, and a fine waterman, a stock of tame cattle and hogs, the crop of corn, pease and potatoes, some household furniture, wearing apparel, &c. &c. The condition of the sale will be made known on the day of sale.

All persons indebted to the estate of the said deceased, are desired to make payment; and those that have any demands, are desired to make them known by the day of sale, to DANIEL LEGARE, jun. Administrator.

TO BE SOLD,

A tract of land, commonly known by the name of Chuli Finny-neck, pleasantly situated between Chuli Finny and Coosawhatchie-bridge, in Prince-William's parish.

CONTAINING about 2000 acres, proper for corn and indico, and upwards of 400 very good rice land; has five settlements on it, with good dwelling-houses and out-buildings, two of which under good fence, with two setts of new indico vats, and sufficient reserves; one settlement fronts Broad-river, and affords an extensive and agreeable prospect, about six miles from Port-Royal-Island, and about 500 acres hard feeding marsh; the whole tract so situated that a mile and a half of fence will inclose it entirely. Whoever inclines to purchase all or any part may apply to Andrew Deveaux, sen. in Prince-William's parish, or Dewar and Bacot, in Charles-Town. 51—63

STRAY'D into the plantation of Mr. Thomas Wright, at Black River, in the parish of St. James, Goose-Creek: A young stallion roan horse, about three years old, with black tail and mane, and branded on the mounting side, on the buttock, N. I. Whoever claims the said horse, must prove his property before me THOMAS WRIGHT.

TO BE SOLD,

On the 20th of November, next on the plantation late of John Field, deceased,

SOME slaves, and stocks of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep; also two tracts of land, one joining Luke Stoutenbourgh and Thomas Hutchinson, Esqrs. the other consists of two islands near Capt. John Bull's: Any person inclineable to purchase at private sale, may treat with the subscriber before the day of sale: Who hereby gives notice to all persons that have any demands upon the estate, to bring in the same as the law directs, so as to receive payment by the aforesaid day, and to all persons indebted, to make immediate payment to WILLIAM FIELD, Executor.

TWO large SCONCE-GLASSES and a CHIMNEY-GLASS, in mahogany frames, ornamented with carving and gilding, by WILLIAM BANBURY.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize and General Goal Delivery, begun and holden at Charles-Town, on Wednesday the 17th of October, 1764.

JOHN HARVEY, William Bissett, James Macpherson, and Samuel Wilkins, being duly summoned and returned to serve as GRAND-JURORS; and John Holmes, Joseph Ash, John Mayrant, John Murray, John Glen, Jeremiah Beard, Peter Secare, John Wood, David Toomer, Isaac Bradwell, David Cheney, Owen Bowen, George Hogg, David Ferguson, George Allison, Nathaniel Bradwell, and Robert Rivers, jun. being duly summoned and returned to serve as PETIT-JURORS, at said court, made default: For which they are fineable, the former in the sum of Ten Pounds, and the latter in the sum of Five Pounds, Proclamation money, each.

This is therefore to give notice, that process will most certainly be issued for levying the said fines, unless the said defaulters shall respectively make good and sufficient excuses, upon oath, for their non-attendance, within forty days from the first day of the sitting of the said court.

Crown-Office, DOUGAL CAMPBELL, Cl. C. & P.
